

Paving Operations
Bruce Freeman Rail Trail
July 8, 2024
Codjer Lane to Hop Brook

Rear view of asphalt paving equipment south of Hop Brook, awaiting asphalt delivery.

Front view of asphalt paving equipment awaiting asphalt delivery.

Delivering asphalt to paving equipment south of Hop Brook.

Delivering asphalt to paving equipment south of Hop Brook.

Delivering asphalt
to paving equipment south of Hop Brook.

Delivering asphalt
to paving equipment
south of Hop Brook.

Paving while receiving hot asphalt.

Paving while receiving hot asphalt... the steam rises from the fresh asphalt which is applied at 300 degrees F.

Rolling fresh asphalt, south of Hop Brook.

Water being sprayed on roller,
south of Hop Brook.

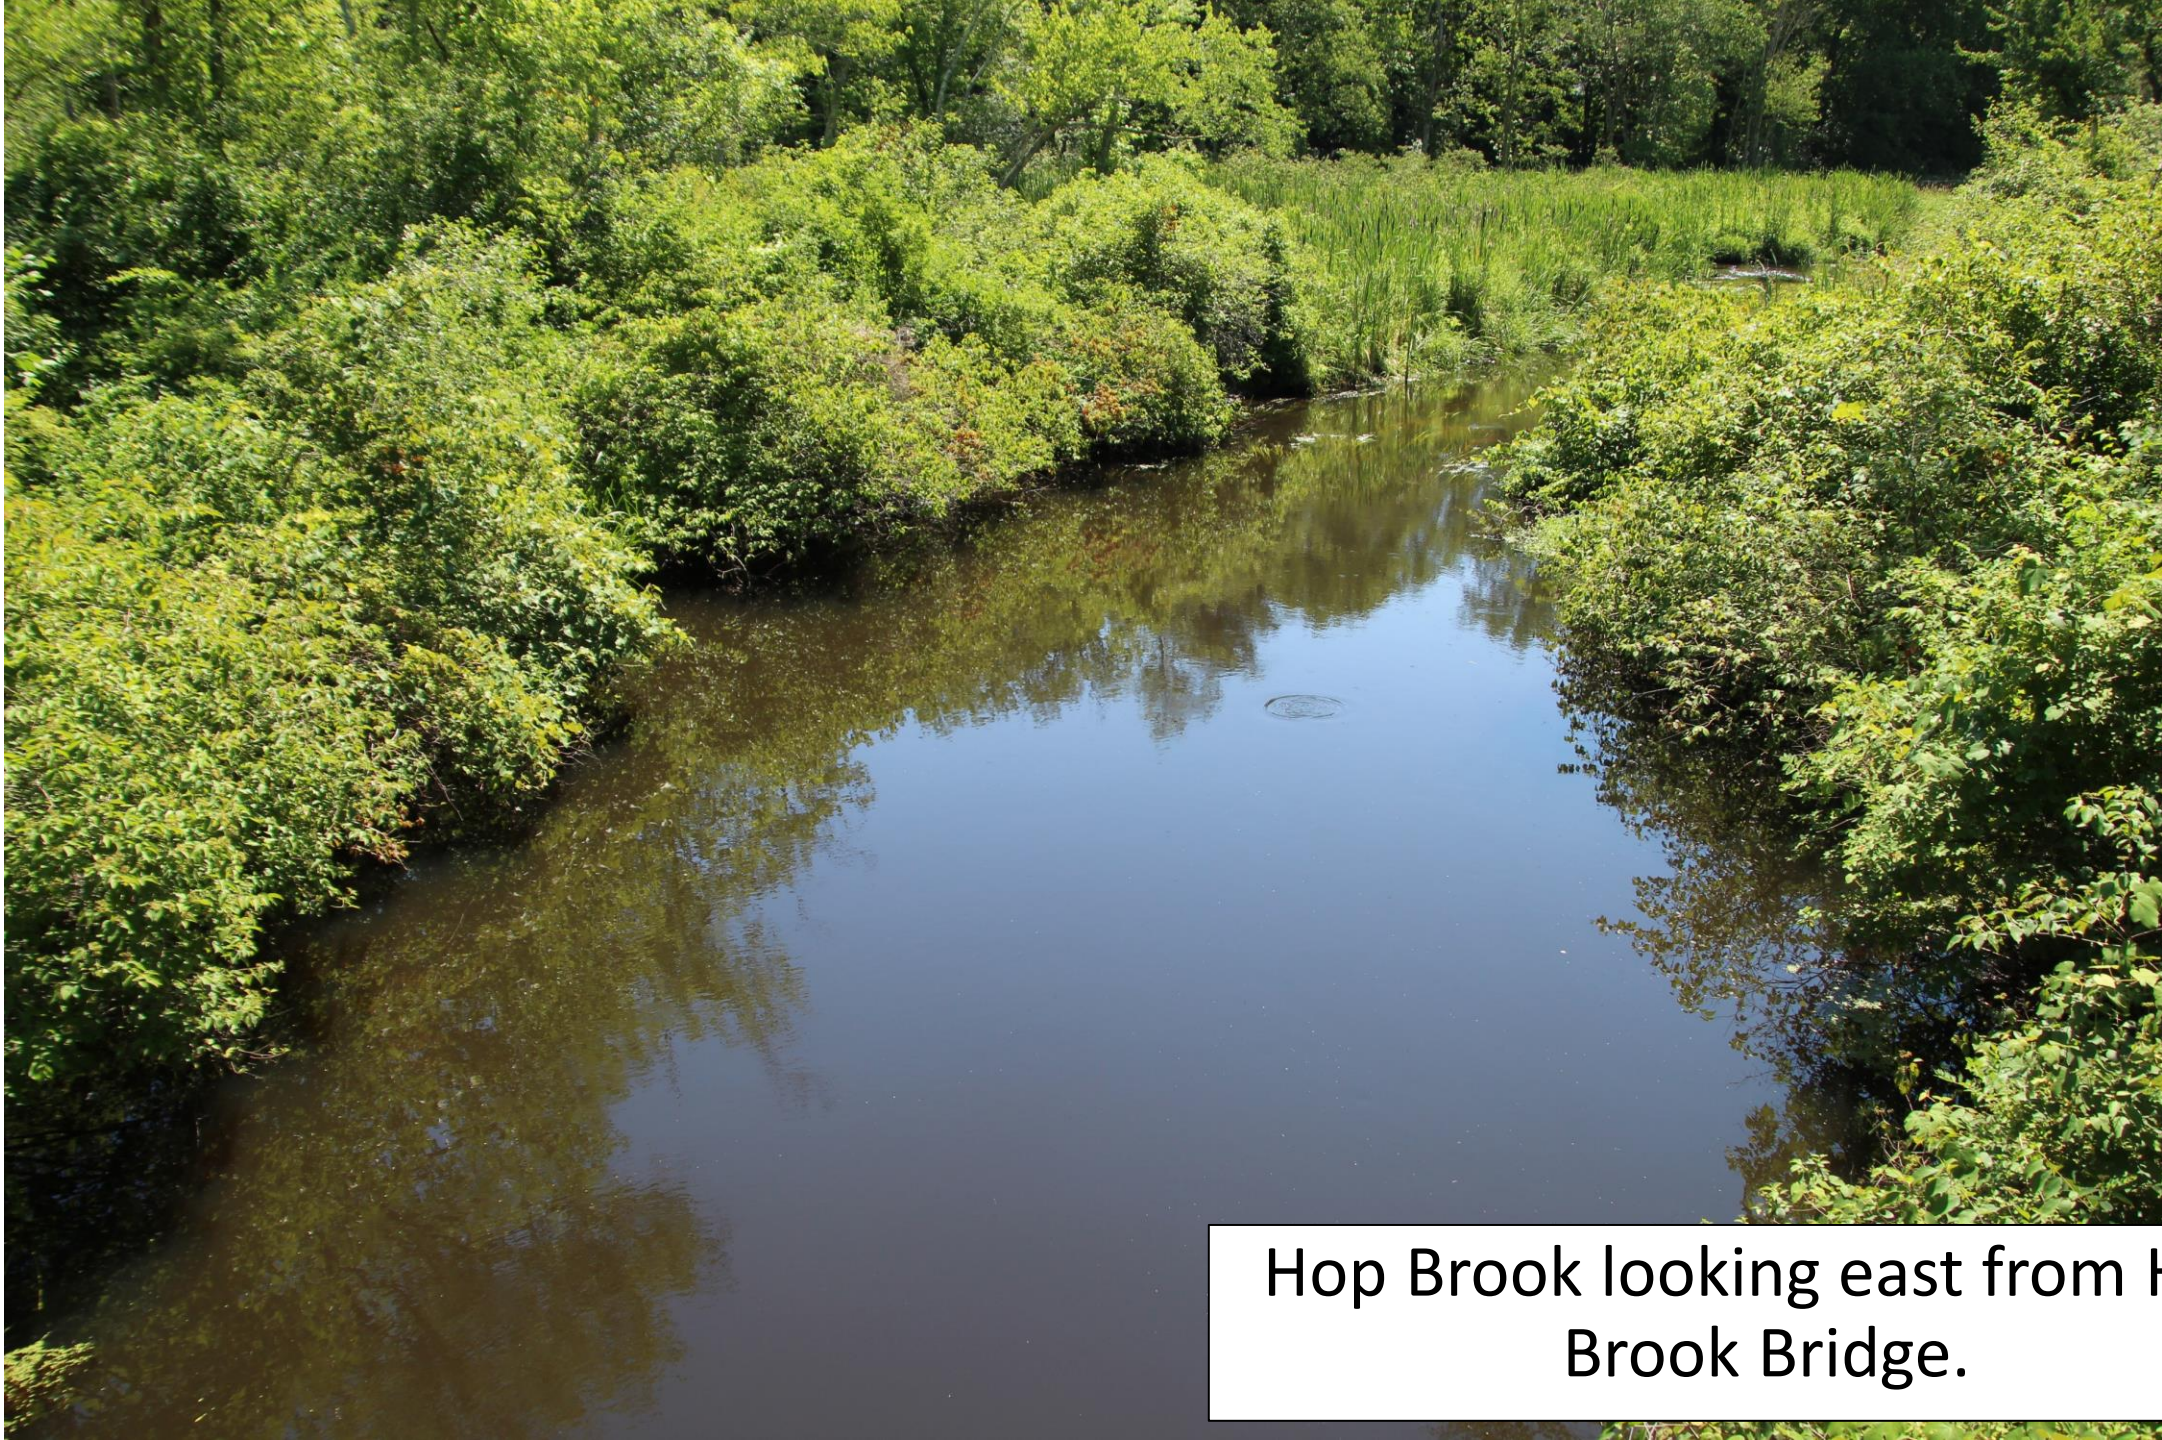

Rolling fresh asphalt near Hop Brook bridge.

New asphalt is level with Hop Brook Bridge.

View of freshly paved BFRT, looking south from Hop Brook Bridge.

Hop Brook looking east from Hop Brook Bridge.

Special equipment to spray binder for top coat of asphalt.

Special equipment to spray binder for top coat of asphalt backing onto rail trail.

Spray binder on BFRT north of Hop Brook bridge.

Spray binder on BFRT, new asphalt will be level with bridge deck.

Directions to paving crew for installing new asphalt.

Directions to paving crew for installing new asphalt.

Paver transported to Old Lancaster Rd. on north side of Hop Brook, as it is too heavy to cross the bridge.

Backing down trail from Old Lancaster Rd. to start paving north of Hop Brook.

Paver backing down trail from Old Lancaster Rd. to start paving north of Hop Brook.

Asphalt truck backing down trail from Old Lancaster Rd. for delivery to paver to begin paving north of Hop Brook.

The Bruce Freeman Rail Trail is not yet open.

Please keep off for your safety.

END